Religious Census To Begin Sunday

All residents of Appomattox are involved in the nation-wide census which began this week, but for some households there's another census on the way. This is a religion census of the town of Appomattox and surrounding area, beginning Sunday at 2 p.m. Deacon John C. Cole (left) and Liberty Baptist Church pastor, the Rev. Dr. Thomas Lea are looking over a map of Appomattox, preparing for the census, Kyle Coleman is co-chairman and other deacons and volunteers of the church will be helping. Purpose, says Dr. Lea, is to seek out new families in the area and other families whose religious affiliation is not known and to locate those interested in and receptive to the spiritual ministry of Liberty Baptist Church.

Public Hearing Monday On Underpass

A public hearing on the location of an improvement to VA 47 in Pamplin City will be held at 7:30 p.m, April 6 in Pamplin Elementary School.

Maps and other pertinent information are available for public inspection and copying in the Appomattox Residency office of the Virginia Department of Highways, and at the department's Lynchburg District office.

Written statements and other exhibits relative to the proposed project may be presented in, of, or in addition to, oral statements at the hearing. Such written statements and exhibits also may be submitted to the Highway Department up to 10 days after the location hearing.

Relocation assistance programs also will be discussed at the public hearing.

The proposed improvement of 0.3 of a mile of the primary highway would be from 0.21 of a mile north of the south corporate limits of Pamplin City to the intersection with Business US 460.

An underpass is contemplated under the Norfolk and Western Railway track, with existing grade crossings on VA 600 and existing VA 47 to be closed to public use.

The highway improvement would begin south of VA 1101 (Piney Ridge Road), follow existing VA 47 to VA 600, then VA 600 to the intersection with VA 1104, then on new location to Business US 460.

Approximately a third of the route would utilize present VA 47, a third would use VA 600, and the remainder would be new location for the underpass section.

Development Corporation Is Formed

13-Man Board Elected Wed

Five dollars gives each donor a Class B membership in the Appomattox Development Corporation, and J. B. Drinkard as temporary treasurer, (seated, center of photo) did a brisk business singing receipts for Appomattox businessmen and women interested in having industry located in the county. A board of directors was selected Wednesday night and articles of incorporation approved. The Governor's Office, Division of Industrial Development, Virginia Electric and Power Co, and Norfolk and Western Railway were represented at the meeting.

The Appomattox County Development Corporation was formed Wednesday night by a group of business and professional men and women meeting at the Court House.

A thirteen-man board of directors was unanimously approved, the same thirteen men who formed a steering committee in February to formulate a non-profit corporation to invite industry to Appomattox county.

James A. Smith, extension agent, acted as chairman of Wednesday's meeting. Commonwealth's attorney Harry Gordon Lawson read the proposed articles of incorporation which were approved.

The corporation includes two classes of membership: Class A – which will include persons who purchase bonds from the corporation, for the construction of utilities for an interested industry or for some other purpose in connection with industrial growth or expansion. Class B – which includes all persons who contribute $5.00 to get the corporation underway, to handle legal fees, entertainment costs for industrial prospects, stationery, telephone calls and the like.

Brief remarks were given by George Delo, Richmond, Director of Community Development of the Governor's Office, Division of Industrial Development. Also, Kenneth Lane, Manager, Industrial Development, Virginia Electric and Power Co.

Appomattox county Southside district supervisor John C. Cole spoke to the group on behalf of Charles E. Hunter, Manger, Industrial Development, Norfolk and Western Railway, who was unable to be present. Hunter came here in February as guest of the Appomattox County supervisors to talk about industrial possibilities.

Wednesday night's meeting followed a public meeting held February 9 and numerous committee meetings which have resulted in a file of possible industrial sites, basic research on Appomattox County, and studies by a finance committee.

The thirteen directors named to the corporation include J. D. Simpson, H. G. Lawson, W. Lloyd Vaughan, W. E. Jamerson, John C. Cole, O. H. Tolley, Jr., J. B. Drinkard, J. A. Smith, J. S. Grinels, H. B. Pack Jr., Richard Williams, Ivey Holland, C. T. Moses.

C. T. Moses, chairman of the Site Selection Committee said, "I've heard people say that in Appomattox nobody wants to sell land. Let me say that in the last six weeks to two months not one person has turned us down." He said that as soon as the ne-

Gladstone Squad In April Parade

Because the Gladstone Rescue Squad now has two ambulances, one of these vehicles will be a part of the "Miss Appomattox" parade Saturday, April 18.

Up to this time, said Mrs. Virginia Cyrus, secretary for the Squad, it was not feasible to place an ambulance in the parade.

The Squad is currently conducting a drive to raise funds for the 1970 budget. The Squad hopes to purchase a boat ($1,200) plus paying off a note for $1,700. Other expenses include an $800 for utilities, $1,000 for insurance, miscellaneous expenses of $800 and $2,000 to set aside for future improvements.

The drive for funds continues to May 5, and each donation is welcome. Donations may be mailed to Gladstone Rescue Squad, Gladstone.

Heart Campaign Raises $1681.00

The chairman of the Appomattox County Heart Fund, Ivey Holland said he is pleased to announce that the 1970 Heart Fund Solicitation Campaign was a success. "We not only reached but exceeded our goal which was $1500.00", said Holland. At present $1681.00 has been credited to Appomattox County.

The Heart Fund chairman hastens to point out that this was made possible by the work of 60 to 75 volunteers who gave generously to their time. All of those contributing were most generous. The Heart Fund chairman wishes to acknowledge thanks to the volunteers and all who contributed.

"These funds will go a long way toward providing education community services and research, all directed to minimize the deaths and suffering caused by the Health problem, Heart and Circulatory diseases," he added.

Spring Mills Museum Open

Spring Mills Museum, Route 604, Appomattox has been reopened for the season by Mrs. Mary Turner, manager. The museum is a four-story mill where old flour barrels and milling and grinding equipment stand just where they did when Spring Mills was a thriving enterprise. There is also a gift shop where local arts and crafts are for sale plus a nature trail up Falling River and picnic facilities.

Visitors can find the mill by taking Route 727 south from the town of Appomattox then making a left turn on to Rt. 604 to its juncture with 646 at the boundary between Appomatox and Campbell counties.

County Resource Study Underway

County leaders representing diverse interests have just completed a series of meetings to determine the suitability of the resources of Appomattox County for eleven kinds of outdoor recreation.

The three-day series of meetings was held Tuesday, March 24 through Thursday, March 26 in the East Central District Extension conference room on Main Street.

Included in the study were vacation cabins, camping grounds, picnic and field sports areas, fishing waters, golf courses, hunting areas, natural scenic and historic areas, riding stables, shooting preserves, vacation farms and water sports areas. Results of the appraisal will appear in a booklet to be published within the next few months, "An Appraisal of the Resources in Appomattox County, Virginia for Outdoor Recreation, 1970".

Appomattox is one of more than 65 counties of the Commonwealth engaged in studies of outdoor recreation developments, according to R. L. McClenny, Soil Conservationist for Appomatox.

The board of supervisors approved the printing of the study at the Oct, 1969 meeting.

According to McClenny resources of the county are explored in such a study, including climate, impounded water streams, potential lakesites, scenery and natural areas, historic areas, soil, wildlife, local population, income of local people, age and occupation, proximity to metro centers, highways and tourist route, land ownership and land use.

Purpose, he says is to serve as a guide to encourage further development of kinds of recreation that are economically sound, developments for which the county is well suited.

Meeting here with county leaders were Dr. Richard Marks, recreation specialist, Virginia Polytechnic Institute; L. W. Kempf, Forester, Soil Conservation Service; Kenneth Fussell, Soil Scientist, Soil Conservation Service and E. R. Minnick, Area Conservationist from Chase City. County contributors of the study included Miss Lelia Mayton, John Goin, Sam Conner, Richard Carter, Warren Taylor, Robert L. McClenny, W. W. Blythe, Frank Hanenkrat, Richard Lacks, James A. Smith, John C. Cole, H. B. Pack, Charles Torrence, J. N. Jennings, Mrs. Alice Lee Hunter, Dennis Torrence, Tommy Johnson, Hank Hawkins and Calvin Robinson.

Music Saturday Night For Everyone

The Virginia Tech Varsity Glee Club will sing here Saturday night at 8 p.m. at the Appomattox County High School gymnasium in what promises to be an unusually good evening of music for the entire family. In addition to the men, there will be a girls' chorus and a small orchestra, Stanley G. Kingma is director of the 75-voice troupe which has traveled extensively throughout the Southeast during the last several years. The Appomattox Lions Club is the sponsor. Lions have tickets and tickets will also be on sale at the door. Old time spirituals, folk music and recent popular hits are all included in the concert. Lions invite everyone to come!

Census Takers On The Way

Yesterday, April 1 was Census Day for the United States of America, and these census takers of Appomattox and Buckingham counties, after two days of training Monday and Tuesday have started visiting households throughout the two counties. Census questionnaires were distributed to household by the Post Office a few days ago. They are to be filled out and held for the census taker to pick up. The District Manager says it will probably take from three to five weeks for the census takers to get around to all the households. Crew leader is Mrs. Richard Wingfield (far right, standing) in the meeting room of the District Extension office, Main Street as training got underway for these census takers: Vera K. Moore, Verna Moore, Joyce Bingham, Katherine Weatherly, Maralyn Tutwiler, Virginia Fratrick, Betty Blanks, Rewecca Jamerson, Carolyn Rector, William W. Blythe, J. Gilette Elder. And from Buckingham: Mildred B. Jones, George A. Perkins, Charlotte B. Patterson, Nellie Walker and Mary S. Moore.
